

Scottish HepatoPancreatoBiliary Network Information Pack for Pancreatic Cancer

The following information is available from the Charities and the Scottish Maggie's Centres;

Pancreatic Cancer Action (www.pancreaticcanceraction.org)

A5

- Understanding pancreatic cancer series (1-5)
 1. What is pancreatic cancer and how is it diagnosed
 2. Surgery for operable pancreatic cancer
 3. Treatments for controlling the symptoms of pancreatic cancer
 4. Chemotherapy and how it is given
 5. Diet and nutrition for pancreatic cancer
- Pancreatic cysts and cystic tumours
- Nourishing your body during pancreatic cancer treatment

Pancreatic Cancer UK (www.pancreaticcancer.org.uk)

A5

- An overview of diagnosis and treatment
- Pain and pancreatic cancer
- Diet and pancreatic cancer
- Caring for someone with pancreatic cancer
- Pancreatic cancer and end of life care

A4

- How is pancreatic cancer diagnosed?
- Surgery for operable pancreatic cancer
- Stents and bypass surgery for pancreatic cancer

Nutrition Interest Group Pancreatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland (www.psgbi.org)

A5

- Eating after a duodenal stent

Macmillan Cancer Support (www.macmillan.org.uk)

A5

- Understanding cancer of the pancreas

NHS Boards and specialist centres will complement this information with local information supplied by the Clinical Nurse Specialist. The specialist centres are;

- Aberdeen Royal Infirmary
- Dundee Ninewells Hospital
- Edinburgh Royal Infirmary (surgery) and Western General Hospital (oncology)
- Glasgow Royal Infirmary (surgery) and the Beatson West of Scotland Cancer Centre (oncology)
- Inverness Raigmore Hospital